Art Goebel Sole Pilot to Finish In Non-Stop Race

Prize Remains With Officials as Goebel Landed at Prescott, Arizona—Made Record Despite Delay—Bitter Battle Over Rocky Mountains.

Mines Field, Los Angeles, Sept. 14 (P).—The elements today stood victor in the non-stop transcontinental air derby, feature event of the national air race meet in progress here, and $22,500 pooled for the first four finishers in the event remained with race officials.

None of the nine planes which hopped from Roosevelt Field, New York, Wednesday, reached their goal without a stop, though for a time yesterday it was thought Art Goebel, holder of the west-to-east non-stop record, had won first prize.

Goebel, winner of the Dole air race from Oakland to Hawaii last August, was the sole pilot to reach Mines Field, landing here at 3:29 p. m., Pacific standard time, amid a great outburst of applause from the crowd.

Following the outburst, however, and confusion attendant with his rather bumpy landing, Goebel revealed he had been disqualified by a landing at Prescott, Ariz., earlier in the day, when he grounded to adjust a faulty carburetor and to take on additional gasoline.

He brought a story of a bitter battle over the Rocky Mountains, during which his white Lockheed-Vega monoplane met fierce headwinds, rain and sleetstorms. The craft, "The Yankee Doodle," bore evidence of the violence of the storm, one cabin door being torn away.

Bettered Time in Eastern Flight
Goebel landed 23 hours and 50 minutes after his takeoff in New York, which time, despite the hour and ten minutes he was on the ground in Arizona, was three hours better than the east-to-west non-stop record of 26 hours, 50 minutes 38 2/3 seconds set by Lieutenants Oakley C. Kelly and John A. MacReady in 1923.

Goebel's west-to-east record flight from Los Angeles to New York was made in 18 hours and 58 minutes. He averaged 100 miles an hour until he passed Chicago, and then loafed along until he sighted New York.

Goebel was the favorite of the long derby because of that performance of his "Yankee Doodle," and was expected to have serious opposition only from Colonel William Thaw's Lockheed-Vega and Nick Mamer's Buhl-Sesqui planes, both forced down earlier.

Captain George Haldeman, Ruth Elder's pilot on her attempted transatlantic flight, was the last plane down in the derby, coming to earth at 5:05 p. m. mountain time yesterday at Albuquerque, N. M., on account of gasoline shortage following a long flight with head winds.

Single Accident Mars Race.
A single accident marred the race when John P. Morris, pilot, and Colonel William Thaw II, navigator, both of Pittsburgh, crashed into a fence after a broken oil line and forced their Lockheed-Vega plane down at Decatur, Ind., yesterday morning. Both men were seriously hurt.

Mamer, in his orange Buhl-Sesqui plane, was the only one of the contestants to choose the northern route, and ran into ugly weather over Wyoming that brought him down after he had assumed a strategic lead. Crossing above Rawlins, Wyo., yesterday morning after a long, hard battle with storms and snows, the Spokane pilot was forced down with ice forming on his carburetor. He landed at 9:33 a. m. mountain time.

A leaky valve on an emergency gas tank forced Lieut. Jack Eiseaman of the Rockaway naval air station, flying Charles A. Levine's transatlantic Bellanca plane, "The Columbia," to descend at Amarillo, Texas. Although he had considerable gasoline in his tanks, he stated he did not think there was enough to finish the race.

Emil "Hard Luck" Burgin of Mineola, N. Y., who has earned his nickname by winning against similar odds as the one encountered in this race, had the same kind of misfortune as Haldeman and landed his Bellanca in a cornfield at Willard, N. M.

Three Out Shortly After Start.
That is the story in brief of the six foremost contenders. The other three were put out shortly after the start. Oliver Le Bouillier of East Orange, N. J., returned to Roosevelt Field soon after the takeoff; Clifford McMillan of Syracuse, N. Y., landed at Chase, Pa., and Randolph Page of Northville, Mich., landed at Almont, Pa.

About 9,000 persons were on the field when Goebel landed his plane, the Yankee Doodle. Goebel and his passenger, Harry Tucker of Santa Monica, the plane's owner, made their way to a hut at the side of the field and told how they had narrowly averted accident on the long hop.

"Storm?" said the trip was just one whole storm. Why, I never had a chance to look at a map from the time I took off until I hit Wichita," Goebel said.

Tucker showed his left hand cut and bruised. He told how he opened a door into the cabin to throw out a gas can. The wind caught the door, lightning would reflect on the surface and Tucker grabbed it for it. The gale ripped it off, slammed it against the fuselage, tearing reins in the plane fabric, breaking several parachutes.

Hoover Extends Jersey Itinerary

Will Visit Various Towns and Cities in Addition to Newark Where He Will Speak Monday Night—Thomas A. Edison to Entertain Him Monday Night.

Washington, Sept. 14 (P).—Herbert Hoover has decided to extend his itinerary in New Jersey so as to visit both Princeton and Trenton as well as more than a dozen towns in the general vicinity of Newark, where he is to speak Monday night.

Leaving Newark early Tuesday afternoon after attending a luncheon which Senator Walter E. Edge is to give there for state and county leaders, the Republican presidential candidate will motor to the state capital, stopping en route at Elizabeth, Brunswick and Princeton.

Trenton Hoover will board his private train, arriving in Washington late Tuesday night.

Instead of spending Sunday night at the Robert Treat Hotel in Newark, as was his original plan, the Republican standard bearer will go to East Orange after the delivery of his speech, and will spend the night at the home of his friend, Thomas A. Edison. He will leave there early Tuesday for a motor trip to Jersey City, Hoboken, Weehawken and a number of other cities in Hudson and Bergen counties before going to Newark to have lunch with the New Jersey Republican leaders.

As will be the case in the Oranges and the other cities he is to visit Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning, Hoover will be welcomed by city officials in the towns he is to visit during his 45 miles of automobile touring from Newark to Trenton. He does not expect to make speeches in any of the cities, save possibly Trenton.

Final details of his two days' visit to New Jersey will be agreed upon at a conference the candidate is to have today at his headquarters. Both parties are waging vigorous warfare in New Jersey and party leaders there desired that Hoover cover as much territory as possible during his visit.

Conference With Longworth.
Hoover also had an engagement today with Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the House of Representatives, who made several speeches in Maine and has just completed a tour through the New England States. During this conference decision will be made as to the extent of the speaker's participation in the campaign and especially his work in his home state of Ohio.

Senator Curtis of Kansas, the Republican vice presidential candidate, also is to call on the party nominee to acquaint him with his plans for his western trip, upon which he sets out late today. He will carry the fight to some of the border states, speaking at Lexington, Ky., tomorrow evening.

The Republican candidate has definitely decided against a fishing trip this week, but he hopes to be able to spend three or four days on Chesapeake Bay next week after his return from Newark. He will have no pressing engagements at that time and will not begin work on his next address, to be delivered at Elizabethton, Tenn., on October 6, until the end of the month.

Crew of Missing Mail Plane Safe

Paris, Sept. 14 (P).—The mail plane from the steamer Ile de France, missing since it was catapulted from the vessel 800 miles at sea yesterday morning, was found early today off Bishop's Rock, the western outpost of the Scilly Isles.

Commander Louis Demougeot, pilot of the plane, and his aides, are safe. The machine is being towed to the French coast.

It was announced that the crew of the seaplane had been rescued by a French sailing vessel which has them aboard and which is now sailing south.

Crew Landed at Newlyn.
Penzance, Cornwall, England, Sept. 14 (P).—The crew and the mails from the seaplane of the French liner Ile de France were landed at Newlyn, a small port near here, this afternoon. One member of the crew left in charge of the mail bags which were intact. The other member of the crew was suffering from exposure, but probably will be able to depart tomorrow.

(The crew of the French seaplane consisted of Commander Louis Demougeot, pilot, and Marcel Monroseau, radio operator.)

Deny Knowing Chicago Jockey.
Boston, Sept. 14 (P).—Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Boston Braves, and John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, both denied today that they knew C. E. Allen, Chicago jockey, whose name was linked with theirs in a race track investigation by the Illinois turf association.

Democratic Plan In Naming Judges

Leaders Confer With Gov. Smith and Decide To Propose Non-Partisan Nominations—Two Quitts Would Run in Third District—Five Judge-Like Affected.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 14 (P).—Governor Smith today approached the last week-end before his departure for the west confident that his lieutenants will take care of the political fences at home until he returns a little more than two weeks hence for the state nominating convention at Rochester.

Desirous not only of victory for himself in November but also that his party remain in control of administration of New York state affairs, the Democratic presidential nominee gave a parting word of advice to 14 state leaders at a long conference at the executive mansion last night, sending them away in a fighting mood for a conference at Utica today to map out organization plans.

Formulation of a state ticket, including a nominee to run for governor, had no place on the program of last night's conference, which dealt primarily with methods of organization. It was agreed that if success was to be theirs organization should be carried out in every election district and efforts made to get all voters registered.

Although several names of possible gubernatorial candidates were mentioned to have been mentioned during the course of the discussion, spokesmen for the leaders said afterward that they had received no hint as to Governor Smith's preference. They added that the field still was open and that serious consideration of state candidates would not take place until the eve of the Rochester convention.

To Make Proposition to Republicans.
One agreement was reached, but it had to do with election of judges. It was decided to propose to the Republicans, said M. William Bray, new chairman of the Democratic state committee, that the judiciary be taken out of politics by agreeing on non-partisan nominations. William H. Kelley of Syracuse, was appointed to get in touch with Republican leaders in an effort to work out such an agreement.

Governor Smith is not expected to say anything about state candidates until he goes to Rochester October 1 for the convention on his way back to Albany from his first speaking tour as a presidential candidate. Plans for this two weeks' trip, which gets under way Sunday, will receive the governor's chief attention from now on.

Asked last night if he thought Owen D. Young, chairman of the board of the General Electric Company, was definitely out of the running for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination as a result of his own statement that he was not a candidate, Chairman Bray replied:

"I don't know. I think it's an open field."

Mr. Bray predicted victory for the Democrats in the state and also one of the largest registrations on record.

The Judiciary Proposition.
Under the decision to broach the Republicans on the subject of non-partisan judiciary nominations, Judge William S. Andrews, of the Court of Appeals, who is a Republican and whose term is about to expire, would be proposed for renomination by both parties. It also will be proposed that four Supreme court judges, appointed by Governor Smith, be supported by both Republicans and Democrats for re-election. Three of them, George D. Smith of the Third District; Irving Goldsmith of the Fourth, and Sanford T. Church of the Eighth, are Democrats, and the other Sanford Smith of the Third, is a Republican.

Many of those who attended the Governor's conference had planned to take part in the conference today at Utica. County chairmen and state committeemen from 57 counties outside of Greater New York, had been invited to that meeting.

Those who took part in the conference here last night were Chairman Bray, Mrs. Daniel O'Day of Rye, vice chairman of the state committee; James A. Farley of New York, secretary; Norman E. Black, national committeeman; George W. Olvany, Tammany chieftain; John H. McCooey, Brooklyn leader; Edward J. Flynn of the Bronx; John W. Heary of Buffalo; Joseph J. Murphy of Troy; Representative Parker Corning of Albany; Harlan W. Rippey of Rochester; William H. Kelley of Syracuse; David Lee of Binghamton, and Benjamin W. Moore of Westchester. Miss Elizabeth Marbury, national committeewoman, was in Maine and could not attend.

MISS ROSE VALK ENGAGED AS LABORATORY WORKER.

The board of health has engaged Miss Rose Valk as assistant at the city laboratory. At a recent meeting of the board it was decided to engage an assistant to Miss B. Eleanor Easton due to the increased amount of work at the laboratory caused by the changes made in the state milk code which required the testing of milk before it could be sold.

James J. Duncan Dies.

Quincy, Mass., Sept. 14 (P).—James J. Duncan, former vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, died today at his home after a long illness.

Health Board Orders Serum In Polio Case

Elmendorf Street Case a Mild One—Only Children Exposed Were Those of Immediate Family—Dr. Loughran Issues Statement Explaining Why School Is Not Closed.

Infantile paralysis and the action taken by Dr. E. H. Loughran, city health officer, in the case brought to the attention of the health officials on Wednesday occupied the greater part of the regular monthly meeting of the board of health Thursday evening at the Central Fire Station.

It was brought out that a case of the disease had developed in the family of Edward L. Ross of 244 Elmendorf street, when his eight year old daughter Caroline, had been stricken, but that the case apparently was a mild one.

Dr. Loughran informed the board that the only children who had been exposed to the disease were the four other children in the Ross family but they apparently were enjoying good health. Caroline, the child who is ill, was taken ill on Sunday, but the disease did not manifest itself until Wednesday.

Serum used in the treatment of infantile paralysis has been ordered from the state board of health and was expected here shortly. Dr. Loughran said this serum is obtained from children who have been afflicted with the disease.

The child who is ill had not been in school since last Friday and was not taken ill until two days later. She is a pupil at School No. 6.

Dr. Loughran said that it was merely a coincidence that the little boy who had died of the disease and who resided on Yarmouth street in the town of Uster, just over the city line, had also attended the same school.

Every precaution was being taken, Dr. Loughran said, to prevent a spread of the disease. The stricken Ross child had been segregated from the other children.

Why School Is Not Closed.

The health officer said he had received many telephone inquiries as to why he did not close School No. 6. His reasons are given in the following statement:

Sept. 13, 1925.
A report has been received by the board of health of a suspected case of poliomyelitis in one of our city schools and the following is a reply to the many questions by phone why we do not close that school:

If the children commingled out of school upon the streets and play grounds, no useful purpose is accomplished by doing so. The closing of school is usually more effective in sparsely settled country districts than in cities.

We have in connection with our school a capable medical man and two trained graduate nurses whose duties are to give daily inspection to all children attending school and investigating quickly any absent ones and those who show any indisposition while there. If they were running around out of school they would loose that valued time, as many children abhor the doctor and many parents wait until any disease is well seated before calling him and much valued aid is lost and we have no way of checking up the absent ones.

The consensus of opinion now is that successful control of any epidemic disease in school children requires keeping the schools open with careful, daily and frequent periodic inspections, the exclusion of cases and contacts and home visitation.

Today we see that good judgment in the health official board is more important than blind adherence to traditional methods, provided they have the thorough knowledge of public health science upon which to base their judgment.

The board audited bills and claims and then adjourned.

Bobby Jones Leads Finlay.
Brae Burn Country Club, Newton, Mass., Sept. 14 (P).—Bobby Jones, confounding his triumphant march in defense of the national amateur golf championship, overwhelmed Phillips Finlay, Harvard sophomore, and stood 9 up at the end of the first 18 holes of their semi-final match today. In the other semi-final, Phil Perkins, British titleholder, was upset on George Voigt of New York after a sensational battle to the half-way mark.

Fence Repair Suit Porto Rico Hit In County Court

Neighbors Disagree Over Present Effect of Agreement Made in 1887—Defendant Denies Responsibility for Repairs Made by Plaintiff.

An action brought by Frank Wilklow against Virginia N. Bennett, born of the town of Lloyd, was taken up for trial in county court this morning. The case is an appeal from a decision in justice's court and involves the question of whether Mrs. Bennett is responsible for the maintenance and repair of a fence bordering the Wilklow property to her farm.

Plaintiff claims that for years there were gates and bars on the property and that the former land owners on the right of way entered into an agreement to maintain a fence along the right of way on condition the bars and gates were removed. By removal of the gates and bars and the substitution of a fence along the right of way they were relieved of the necessity of opening and closing bars on the Wilklow property every time they used the road when cattle were in the lots. This agreement plaintiff claims was acquired by Mr. Bennett when he purchased, and handed down to his widow.

The defendant on the other hand claims that the agreement entered into in 1887 did not cover the fence through to the Bennett property but only a portion of the private roadway which led to a property nearer the highway and which also enjoyed the right to use the right of way. Defendant claims that the owners of the two properties were jointly responsible for the fencing and maintenance of that portion but that beyond the point covered in the agreement there was no responsibility to the one owner of the property now owned by Bennett.

Seeks Cost of Repairing Fence.
Plaintiff seeks to recover the cost of repairing the fence in question, claiming that after Mrs. Bennett failed to make repairs after being notified, Mr. Wilklow made the repairs and brought an action to recover the cost of the work.

"The right of way is given to the former Dayton and Connelly properties which were along the Wilklow lane. The Connelly property is now the Bennett property and is the last farm down the right of way. It is the contention of the defendant that the agreement entered into, and which is on record, only covered that portion of the fence which ran to the Dayton property and which under the agreement must be kept in repair by both the owners of the Dayton and Connelly properties. The defendant contends that there is no responsibility covering the road beyond the Dayton property which is used only by the owners of the Connelly property, now owned by Bennett."

A. W. Lent appears for the plaintiff and DeWitt W. Ostrander for the defendant.

Plaintiff claims the joint responsibility runs as far as the Dayton property and there is a single responsibility beyond that point which rests on the owner of the former Connelly property which is now the Bennett property.

Damage in San Juan Hit By Hurricane

Will Reach Two Millions—Casualties Undetermined—Communication and Shipping Disrupted.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 14 (P).—One vessel was on the rocks today, communication and shipping were disrupted, houses were in ruins and other buildings were without roofs. Due to the blast of a tropical hurricane.

It was estimated that the damage in San Juan and vicinity would run as high as $2,000,000. The casualties were undetermined.

The hurricane reached its greatest intensity at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. For six hours the wind was calculated by the weather bureau to have blown at an average of 100 miles an hour, with occasional squalls at 150 miles an hour. The anemometer at the bureau registered 132 miles an hour before being carried away by the force of the wind.

Shipping losses were believed to be heavy. The freighter Helen dragged its anchor and drifted on the rocks at the entrance of the harbor. Two sailing vessels appeared from the shore to be sinking.

The city was plunged in darkness and transportation halted. Communication with other parts of the island was cut off and it was thought that days would be required before it was restored. Weather bureau officials believed, however, that San Juan had probably borne the brunt of the storm.

The hurricane ripped the roof off the Palace Hotel in the center of the city. Part of the roof of the Union Club was carried away.

The governor's palace was flooded. Windows and doors were blown in. Coconut trees and palms in the garden were leveled.

Throughout San Juan and its suburbs houses were destroyed and others damaged. Trees broken off or uprooted by the hurricane crashed in the walls of homes and fell across the streets, blocking traffic.

That the hurricane which hit Porto Rico had not spent its force was indicated in a warning issued by the United States Weather Bureau at 9:20 p. m. yesterday. It read:

"No report tonight east of longitude 71. However, hurricane probably central near southwestern point of Porto Rico moving west-northwestward and will likely pass over or near Santo Domingo Friday morning."

"Greatest caution advised vessels near path. This is a dangerous storm."

Longitude 71 cuts through the Dominican Republic about 80 miles west of Santo Domingo.

There are several ships in the danger zone. The passenger steamer San Lorenzo, of the New York and Porto Rico line, was believed to be at sea near San Juan.

Franz Romer, a German sailing toward the United States in a collapsible canoe, was believed to be in the storm area, having left San Juan on Tuesday.

A storm warning was issued at Havana for Oriente Province, the extreme eastern tip of Cuba.

11 Known Dead in Nebraska Tornado

Portions of Nebraska and South Dakota in Ruins—More Than 100 Injured, Many Seriously—Meagre Reports From Outlying Sections.

Chicago, Sept. 14 (P).—Two tornadoes, wiping out lives and smashing buildings and homes, had left portions of Nebraska and South Dakota virtually in ruins today.

Eleven persons were known to be dead. The town of Davis, S. D., a community of 250 people, was a mass of wreckage. More than 100 were injured, many seriously, from twisters that cut two separate strips of destruction late yesterday.

Both storms traveled northeasterly, crippling communications, so that only meagre reports had come from many outlying sections early today.

Four country schools filled with pupils crumbled in the path of the Nebraska storm, which began near Bancroft and continued into Iowa, taking five lives. A special train of doctors from Sioux City, Iowa, left to care for more than 80 injured.

More than 20 houses and the Minneapolis and Omaha railroad depot in Dakota City, Neb., were wrecked or blown away. Injured persons filled a hospital, hotel and two homes in Walthill, Neb.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kuntze was carried half a mile from their farm near Winnebago, Neb., and was found dead in a hay stack.

Six were killed in the storm which began near Yankton, S. D., and continued beyond Davis, 40 miles north-east of Yankton. Many farm buildings and hundreds of head of livestock were destroyed in the mile-wide path of the storm, which ended a prolonged heat wave. A score were injured in the village of Davis, which was almost swept away.

Local Firms Active in Drive to Stop Accidents

Quarter Million Industrial Workers Start on Three Months' Intensive Accident Prevention Campaign—Eleven Local Firms Are Participating—Trophy for Winner.

Eleven industrial firms in this city and vicinity have entered in the fourth annual accident prevention campaign under the auspices of Associated Industries of New York State, Inc., the state organization of manufacturers, which started Sunday, September 2nd, and will continue until Saturday, December 1st.

More than 1,300 firms in all lines of industry in all parts of the state are competing in this concerted drive which has as its object the reduction of preventable accidents in industry to a minimum. These 1,300 firms employ more than a quarter of a million workers in the manual trades, the greatest number ever enrolled in a single drive of this nature.

Firms in this city and vicinity who are participating are:

C. A. Baltz, Brikham Co., Fessenden Shirt Co., J. S. Fuller, Inc., F. Jacobson & Jones, Kingston Steam Laundry, H. W. Patten's Sons, Rose Bros., Ulster and Delaware Railroad Co., Ulster Foundry Corp., G. W. Van Slyke & Horton.

Enrollment Doubled.

Associated Industries reports that the tremendous enrollment this year doubles that of last year when the enrolled firms went through a similar period with a loss of time through accidents of less than one-quarter of one per cent of the total time worked, the figures including arbitrary penalties of 12,000 man-hours for each of 13 accidental deaths. To further reduce this loss is the object of the present drive.

"Past campaigns have proved that fully ninety per cent of the accidents occurring in industry can be prevented," says Maxwell S. Wheeler, of the Larkin Company, Buffalo, and President of Associated Industries. "The remarkable records made in former years have shown that New York State factories rank among the leaders as safe places in which to work and have in their personnel workers who appreciate the value of conservation of life and limb. In spite of the great reduction, which has been made, however, there are thousands of accidents every day which could have been prevented by the exercise of sane judgment. The employers of the state conduct these annual campaigns in the knowledge that the competition aroused between individual plants and employee groups will result in better safety experience and that the impetus gained by the three-months' intensive drive will carry on for an indefinite period. Every accident prevented means a definite saving to the public, the employer and the employee, just as every accident means a loss, in lives, in limbs and in money. It is a drive to educate the employer and the employee in the needlessness of the tremendous waste occasioned by preventable accidents."

Every Industry Represented.

Every industrial activity from the manufacture of paper flowers to the operation of great railroad systems is represented in the entry list. Firms are divided into four distinct classes as regards size and into many groups as to nature of hazard, making of the one campaign a series of independent drives in which firms compete against those only of comparable size and with the same accident hazards. A trophy is awarded to the winner in each group and certificates of merit to other firms who make deserving records. In 1927 there were 65 trophies presented and certificates awarded to 300 firms who completed the campaign with perfect records.

The campaign has the endorsement of many organizations such as National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, Chambers of Commerce, Safety Bureau and others active in accident prevention work, all of which are working closely with Associated Industries to arouse and sustain the interest of the employers and workers.

Mass Meetings in Factories.

Mass meetings will be held in many factories during the period of the campaign with experienced speakers to point out the advantages of the drive. Associated Industries has issued nearly 100,000 special posters which will be displayed in the plants of competing firms. Scoring will be kept on a point system based on the number of lost man-hours through accidents to the total number of man-hours worked. Standings in the various groups will be announced weekly, each competing firm, however, being designated by a code or key number rather than by name, until the final week when the names of the winning firms only will be announced.

It is estimated that the combined exposure of the competing firms will exceed 12,500,000 man-hours weekly or more than 165,000,000 man-hours during the campaign.

Business Certificate Filed.

A certificate under the assumed name business law has been filed with the Ulster county clerk by William C. Van Dine and A. N. Van Dine of 250 Washington avenue, Kingston, that they are conducting a business under the name and style, Hudson Valley Realty Associates.

Wearied of the constant street clamor for a telegraph wire and sympathizing with the cries of the scores of destitute refugees asking to be put in touch with anxious relatives in the city, about 11 o'clock Monday morning Herman S. Millions of women know that the making of a tempting beverage is not altogether a matter of boiling and stirring. Coffee must have flavor and aroma. Of course, but if the roasted bean does not possess these qualities, then no magic of the housewife can extract them. But there is a certain fine old brand of coffee, White House, in which all the precious natural aromatic oils have been preserved in the roasting. The Dwinell-Wright Company, producers of this coffee, experimented for over 80 years before they developed their present method of capturing the true fragrance and flavor of the bean. Even the packaging and sealing of White House coffee is done in such a way that not a bit of aroma is lost.

Make Parachute Jump Here Sunday

Sunday afternoon at the flying field of the Kingston Airways, just over the viaduct, Eric Lindgren of Cortina Field, L. I., will make a parachute jump from an altitude of 1,500 feet.

The officials of the field made arrangements to have the jump several weeks ago but the inclement weather made it impossible and Sunday is the first date they could secure the services of the expert they have obtained.

Lindgren is a well known parachute jumper, being one of the best men in the country performing this feat. He has approximately 500 jumps to his credit which guarantees to anyone who wishes to see him the opportunity of seeing a spectacular feat done in the right way.

The Kingston Airways are bringing this man here at considerable expense and they expect that Kingston people will turn out in large numbers to see him.

The regular choir, consisting of Mr. La Touche and Mrs. Osterhoudt will be enhanced through the cooperation of Mrs. Jack Molloy, Mrs. Sam Mang and Mrs. Lazarus.

The morning service on Saturday will begin at 10 o'clock. The topic of Rabbi Rose will be "My Father—My Son." It will deal with the relations of parents and children.

Temple Emanuel wishes to extend a special invitation to visitors and newcomers to attend the services during the high holidays. Prayer books will be provided for members and guests.

TAMMANY ETHICS

In reply to charges of wholesale graft in Greater New York Tammany's mayor, James J. Walker, admits that Father Knickerbocker is afflicted with the legacy of corruption but opines the taint is slight. This is a novel plea to enter before the court of public opinion in the nation. In fact it suggests a political philosophy at once comforting to thieves, politicians and offering absolute to good fellows who didn't steal much. Such censure, if popular approval supports the mayor, would rate sympathy rather than rebuke, while the defrauded taxpayer might be expected gladly to part with his cash and perhaps petition Tammany to promote deserving corruptionists.

Another phase of this question of ethics is establishment of a criterion by which to measure great or little civic thievery. Shall the peculation of that patron saint of Tammany Hall and arch rogue of national history, Boss Tweed, be accepted as standard? If so the sum of $50,000,000 or so may be assumed to be a fair wage for labor in the vineyard of graft. Or shall public sensibility blush over the lesser sum of $1,000,000, with which one Swartout, a more modest Tammany man, many years ago departed for Europe?

This is a delicate question, as basic in its application as current debate in utility circles over use of replacement or first costs as premise for computing dividends. The mayor of New York should proceed to its solution at once, both for the benefit of thieves in his own organization and the graft ridden taxpayer of the Metropolis, who must be surprised to see such tidy sums as an estimated $50,000,000 in Queens sewer graft, $34,000,000 per annum bribes in food inspection and other varying estimates running into the millions for excessive street cleaning costs so lightly disposed of.

It is unfortunate for Mayor Walker's defense of his Tammany administration that there are still some snobbish people who believe a public servant should not steal anything at all, no matter how good a fellow he may be or how kind to his family. These gentry are currently termed "bigots" by politicians of Mayor Walker's school of thought and probably will vote against Tammany in the coming elections.

THIEVERY IN ALBANY

The Albany gambling ring operating a baseball pool first came to national attention when Colonel Theodore Roosevelt charged in an address at Rochester that Democratic politicians, upon whom Tammany relied for votes in the up-state city, profited by its protection.

Mr. Roosevelt cited indictment of prominent Democratic politicians in Massachusetts and challenged Governor Smith to remove officials in the State Capitol who had failed to proceed against the ring. Subsequent pleas of guilty upheld the colonel in his charges.

Further legal action, this time in New York city, throws additional light upon the operations of the political powers of the state capitol. United States District Attorney Tuttle recently secured six indictments against pool agents for using the mails to defraud. In a public statement to the newspapers he estimated a players' chance of winning at 1 to 1,000, "if the pool were conducted squarely", but asserted that plays were rigged against the gamblers' victims.

Gross business of the Albany gambling ring, according to the U. S. district attorney, amounted to millions of dollars per annum.

Few citizens will find excuse for a law-breaking alliance between Albany's Democratic leaders and gamblers at the unattractive odds of 1,000 to 1 against the public. None will condone theft of the players' money by rigged drawings. To the moralist such disclosures lead verily to the charge that where Tammany controls graft and corruption flourish.

Self-congratulation over imminent restriction need not go too far.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

BY
James W. Barton, M. D.

(Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act.)

IS SLEEP IMPORTANT?

One of the hard problems your doctor has to face is how to enable many of his patients to secure proper rest—sleep. The body and brain are tired, need absolute relaxation, and sleep, natural sleep, is the great restorer.

And yet if you ask him just what causes sleep, he would be at a loss to answer you correctly.

What he does know is that during sleep the cells of the body, instead of giving out energy, instead of working, are not only resting, but taking on fuel or energy. It is like taking your car to the filling station, getting new oil, and having the battery removed from the car and recharged.

If you do not get your sleep it is like running your car without getting oil renewed or battery recharged. And just as a motor car cannot give good service with oil that has been used too long—thin and gritty—neither can your body give good service without sleep. The fact that some men, Edison for instance, can get along with a smaller amount of sleep than does the average individual, should not give you the idea that sleep is not important.

Dr. R. C. Cabot says, "I believe that more minor illnesses are due to lack of sleep than to any other recognizable factor." Without sufficient sleep you are "working on your nerve," and that means exhaustion of your vital energy.

Research men tell us that the loss of one whole night of sleep, requires seventeen nights of sleep to get the cells of the body back to normal.

Now while the cause of sleep is unknown some of the little points that help to "woo" sleep are worth our attention, such as quietness, a well ventilated room, a good mattress, and a light bedclothing. However, unless you can relax your body and with that your mind, it is going to be difficult to get off to sleep.

Dr. Nathaniel Kleitman tells us that the onset of sleep is due to complete muscular relaxation. He showed that if the muscles of animals were kept moving or contracting that the animal easily kept awake, but if they were allowed to rest their muscles, they were unable to keep awake.

Thus if you will relax your entire body, and lie as if you were completely exhausted physically and mentally, fewer impulses will go up to the brain from the muscles and the skin itself. And if the brain is not kept so alert you will drop off to sleep.

Her mother refused and Carolyn kept teasing for it until her mother said: "Carolyn, I said 'no.' Don't you understand 'no' when you hear it?" Carolyn still determined to get the gum, said: "I understand 'yes'."

League Price $2.63 For August Milk

Net Price Is 35 Cents Above July Price and 21 Cents Higher Than Previous August Record.

New York, Sept. 14.—A net pool price of $2.63 per 100 pounds for 3.5 milk was announced today by the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, Inc., as the basis upon which return will be made to its members for August milk.

This price, it was stated, sets a new high return to Dairymen's League producers for August milk. It is 21 cents per 100 pounds above the previous high August record established in 1927, and is an increase of 35 cents over what was paid for July milk.

The higher return, say officials of the League, is due in part to the fact that the usual short production season increase in market prices went into effect earlier this year than a year ago when a powerful distributing corporation opposed the efforts of the cooperative Association to secure better prices for farmers. Other factors in the return included weather conditions that were favorable to heavy milk consumption, and disposal of a big portion of the total ### production in the higher priced fluid markets.

Despite opening of schools and return of vacationists since September 1 milk consumption in the metropolitan area has been adversely effected by cooler weather. Another detrimental factor in the September milk market lies in the fact that Jewish holidays are in progress and will continue into October.

CONCERT FOR BENEFIT OF EMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Mme. Alta Melba Browne, graduate of Howard University, Washington, D. C., internationally known singer who is known as the Ethiopian, will give a concert in this city at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium, September 26, at 8 p. m., for the benefit of Emanuel Baptist Church. Mme. Browne, dramatic soprano, will be assisted by Maurice Hunter who will dramatically demonstrate negro folk songs with Mme. Browne accompanying. Mme. Browne has traveled and entertained abroad and her appearance here will probably be greeted with a large attendance. Tickets for the concert may be procured from the treasurer of the church building committee, F. B. Matthews, or from any of the stores in which display cards of the concert are shown. The proceeds of the concert will be devoted to the needs of Emanuel Baptist Church at 151 East Union street for which the following prominent men form a building committee: Dr. Charles B. Smith, chairman; Rev. A. S. Cole, vice chairman; Luther S. Decker, secretary; F. B. Matthews, treasurer; W. B. Terwilliger, trustee; Floyd W. Powell and the Rev. C. H. King, pastor of the church.

RESERVATIONS FOR K. OF C. CLAMBAKE SUNDAY

Members of Kingston Council, No. 275, Knights of Columbus, who contemplate attending the Knights' clambake at Torino's Inn Sunday and did not hand in their reservations are given until tonight to do so. It was previously announced that all reservations had to be in by Thursday evening, but the committee was allowed to extend the time to tonight owing to the fact that many were unable to complete arrangements. Reservations may be handed to the custodian of the K. of C. Home or given to Grand Knight Florian P. Wingert at the Van Motor Company.

When an event of the sort is in the making it is necessary that reservations be made with the committee. It is the only way upon which the bake preparers may base the amount of food needed. They must be informed by the committee of the number that will attend and if the men in charge do it by estimate the event generally turns out to be a costly one.

Vets to Observe Appomattox Day

The annual observance of Appomattox Day will be held by the surviving members of the 26th N. Y. Volunteer Infantry on Monday, September 17. The meeting of these last few members of this famous regiment of the Civil War, who always meet on this day every year in Kingston, will be held in Epworth Hall, corner of Clinton Avenue and Liberty street promptly at 12 o'clock noon, with Comrade Virgil Brit of Port Ewen, who is president, presiding.

After the regular routine business and election of officers for the ensuing year they will adjourn to the banquet hall where a dinner will be served by members of Tappan Camp, No. 1, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, and Auxiliary No. 87. Mrs. Gussie Flicker is chairman for these organizations assisted by all members.

The address of welcome to the veterans will be made by Mayor E. J. Dempsey, followed by the Rev. Arthur S. Cole of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church, and the Rev. A. A. Vradenburg of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church. Music for the occasion will be furnished by Mayor Pierce, and his orchestra. Comrade Newton Fessenden, who is secretary of the organization of the 26th, is the chairman of arrangements and it is through his earnest efforts that Appomattox Day is so fittingly observed in Kingston by these warriors year after year.

All comrades of the Civil War, their widows and families are most cordially invited to participate in this observance.

FIREWORKS TO MARK EAST KINGSTON CELEBRATION

The eighteenth annual feast and fireworks celebration to be staged under the auspices of the Liberty Society of East Kingston will take place on Saturday and Sunday, September 15 and 16. The society has planned an elaborate program for both days.

The celebration will start Saturday at 11 p. m. with a display of fireworks. According to plans the fireworks will be the finest ever sent in to the air at East Kingston. Sunday at 10 a. m. the Society will attend Mass after which a parade will be held. This will start at 11 o'clock.

All the Hot Water You Need for a Few Cents a Day

A cigar—a soda—a naper—"little items in the scheme of things"—extras which don't amount to much, you say. They dip gently into the purse and you never miss the few cents they cost.

Yet, to the person who fears the cost of hot water service, before examining the facts, it is surprising to learn that an automatic supply of hot water for the average home may be secured for less than the few cents spent daily for these "little things."

One hundred gallons of water may be heated to 160 degrees for a cost of about 25c. Does this seem an extravagance when translated into terms of convenience? With hot water on tap from an automatic gas heater there is an ample supply for every household task, whenever needed. Laundry, dishes, cleaning, baths—steaming hot water for all—and no waiting. A RUUD AUTOHOT STORAGE WATER HEATER will assure this service at this low operating cost.

P.S. Don't forget that for users of automatic storage water heaters there is a special low charge of 95 cents per thousand cubic feet for all gas used in excess of 3200 cubic feet per month.

Army Band Has Silver Clarinets

The U. S. Army Band which will appear here September 25, is the first musical organization through the Army establishment to become completely equipped with silver clarinets. Inasmuch as the War Department, after successful experimentation with these clarinets, has ordered that, hereafter whenever clarinets are to be purchased, that purchase be limited to the metal type. It is only a matter of time before all the regular "tin" bands will be similarly outfitted. The importance of this change may be appreciated when it is understood that three-fourths of the present instrumentation of bands is "wood-wind." While experiments have been conducted for two years by Harry Hettony, of Boston, on the silver clarinet, it was not until about a year ago that he succeeded in perfecting the process of manufacture sufficiently to place the instruments on the general market. Already the silver clarinet has met with high favor. It is used extensively by great clarinet soloists both in military bands, symphony and modern concert orchestras. Its manufacturers claim the metal clarinet makes possible a more accurate instrument than wood, which being the product of nature is subject to blemishes. Numerous tests were conducted to show that the metal quality instead of being inferior was if anything improved.

Pedestrians in one of the busy streets of Glasgow, Scotland, recently were amazed by sweet strains of music issuing apparently from a young woman, who was blushing furiously. She had just bought a portable radio set that had not been shut off when she left the store. While she was on the street the Glasgow station began broadcasting and she did not know at first how to shut off the machine.

PRESENT DRAMA OF "RUTH"
The intermediate Epworth League of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church will present the beautiful drama of "Ruth" on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, September 25 and 26.
The play which has as its background the Book of Ruth in the Bible, was written by Prof. H. E. Spence and is one of the best interpretations of that book ever written. The drama requires a cast of thirty-five persons, four different exterior scenes and special lighting effects. All of these important factors are being given their deserved share of attention so that no portion of the play will be slighted.
Each scene has required thirty hours time to paint and with the pretty costumes of the players will form a perfect setting for this drama.

Must Place Rotary Ideals in Practice

Substituting for James Byrne, the marble yard man, who was suffering from an acute attack of insomnia, Dr. Frank B. Seelye was the speaker at the Rotary luncheon at the Governor Clinton this week. Dr. Seelye spoke of the objectives of Rotary, its purposes, its ideals and its work, emphasizing that often neglected phase which involves working on the job and bringing ideals and professions down to earth and putting them into actual practice. Rotary is service, he said. It is also tolerance—tolerance of our own weaknesses and failings. Rotary is broadening and giving us growth. It is sincerity. We cannot serve by singing loudly about our ideals and letting it go at that. The resignation of Secretary Louis S. Coe from office and from membership in the club was received. Mr. Coe is leaving Kingston to take up work in New York city. The regret and appreciation of the club was feelingly and sincerely expressed by President Boesneck.

Visitors were present from Poughkeepsie, Catskill, Middletown, Syracuse and Kingston.

Suburban Values

"Have you made any money?" "Not yet," answered Farmer Cornmeal. "But we're hopeful. However prices may go, there's a real estate boom just ahead."

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

New York—Uncle Sam will handle about two billion dollars extra cash tomorrow. He will pay out nearly half that sum in redeeming third Liberty loan 4½ per cent bonds and take in about as much in income taxes and by selling certificates of indebtedness.

London—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle wants the spiritualists to form a political party. In that way, he thinks, they can get rid of old legislation under which they are subject to prosecution on charge of fortune telling.

New York—Up goes the total of life insurance. The amount written the first eight months of this year is $8,035,772,000, a gain of 5.3 per cent over the same period last year.

Kiel, Germany—The Drakes seem to be excellent navigators. There was Sir Francis, for instance. Now comes one Drake all by himself all the way from Seattle in a little schooner. He's going home the same way.

New York—Senor Guillermo Fels, engineer of the Buenos Aires subway, is convinced that women would rather be admired than be comfortable. They tried cars for women only in the rush hours, tried them on each end of trains and in the middle. There were many vacant seats in them while the other cars were jammed.

Cairo—The Prince of Wales desired that excessive formality be avoided when he and his brother, the Duke of Gloucester, were entertained by 230 men at a dinner at the Helix Club. Therefore everybody wore a dinner jacket and a black tie.

New York—Emil Jay Roth of Trenton, N. J., who became 21 years old on July 4, would be the youngest member of the New York Stock Exchange. Since January 1 he has been a page of the Exchange. His uncle has transferred a membership to him. The governors have yet to act on the matter.

Paris—A movement for a national cheer for French athletes is under way. The favorite so far of those suggested is "Cock-Cock-Cock", the French equivalent of "Cock-A-Do!"

New York—John Blazs, who is intent upon roller skating around the world, has got this far from Elyria, Ohio. He hopes to finish in seven years.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

After the storm of static had subsided, which was at about 7 o'clock, reception Thursday evening was good. The River Chorists, the Foretune Tellers, the Hoover Honeymooners, the Jones Front Porch party and the bond salesmen were all entertaining and tuneful.

Reception this morning was good but was marred by a new kind of local noise that has prevailed off and on for the past ten days or more.

Mrs. Houdini's Worries

Harry Houdini was devoted to pies—especially strawberry pies. He was likewise devoted to locks—no lock was too complicated for him. Mrs. Houdini was well aware of these two facts, but nevertheless, she kept her pies under lock and key for other domestic reasons. On the last Sunday the "Handcuff King" was at home. Mrs. Houdini made two strawberry pies for dinner and locked them up.

Passing of the Wolverine

The wolverine, which has one of the most evil reputations of the animal kingdom, is disappearing in this country.

UNEARTH GREAT
AZTEC PYRAMID

Archaeologists Rejoice at Perfection of Ruins
Found in Mexico.

Mexico City.—One of the most important Aztec pyramids now in existence because it retains architectural features which are not found preserved in any other structure of this kind.

The pyramid is at Tenayuca, about six miles northwest of Mexico City, and is the only one of its kind now known where borders of stone serpents such as were described by eye-witnesses at the time of the conquest, are still in place.

Only in a hole in the street in downtown Mexico City, where a corner of what was once the Great Teocalli now protrudes, a hole that is an esore to business men and a pride and joy to archaeologists, do similar traces of serpent borders remain.

Discovered by Mexican.

The pyramid at Tenayuca was discovered several years ago by Dr. Manuel Gamio, Mexican scientist, then chief of the direction of anthropology of the Mexican government.

It was covered with earth and looked like any other cerro in the neighboring maguery-strewn valley fringed with hills, except for the fact that Indians from the village of Tenayuca, whose huts are clustered around this hill, were extracting cut stone from one of its sides for building their walls and houses.

An exploration of the mound revealed its rare archaeological nature and excavations were first begun about four years ago. Upon the untimely separation of Doctor Gamio from the Mexican service a short time thereafter, the work of clearing the ruins slowed up, but during the last year this unique structure has fast been coming to life again, under the care of Jose Reggadass Vertiz, director of archeology of the Mexican ministry of education.

As excavation proceeds, repair work is done as demanded with the fallen material that remains, to save the structure from future ruin.

Four Sides Unearthed.

Practically the entire pyramid has been uncovered and all four sides are exposed. On three of the sides around the base are the strange borders of coiled stone serpents which are nowhere else to be seen in Mexico. On the fourth side, which is the west, there is a great stone stairway leading to the top, many of whose steps are carved with symbolic pictures.

The stairway is very steep, like most ancient American stairways which were not built for the white man's constitution. As one ascends one cannot even see the top until almost at the last step. In ancient days when the religious procession of priests or worshippers ascended, the sight of the temple that once crowned its top must dramatically have come into view all at once and only when the top was reached.

Today the visitor climbing the stairway does not come to the temple platform on top of the pyramid after the last difficult step, as he should, but meets a sudden drop of many feet to the very bottom again. Facing him, across a wide space, is another similar but inside stairway, parallel to the one he has just climbed under false pretenses.

Original Pyramid Enlarged.

These two parallel stairways tell the story of a time when the structure had grown too small for the expanding community, or the ambitious priests, and a bigger and better pyramid was demanded. Earth and stone were added to the outside, new pyramid walls built, and a new stairway covered the old.

Archaeologists, however, have removed the stone and earth fill between the two stairways in order to show the type of construction practiced at different epochs.

But it is the surroundings of the pyramid that are the most interesting of all. On a platform a few feet wide and about as high as a comfortable seat that runs around three sides of the pyramid, a border of snakes made of stone and cement, and coiled like short fat "S"s, offer the hospitality of the place to the visitor.

Tails face inward and heads outward, and mouths are wide open showing strong stone fangs and much red paint inside. The snakes were once plastered smooth and painted in brilliant colors, some evidences of which remain in spots.

Find 100 Stone Snakes.

Over a hundred of the stone creatures have been uncovered and as they file their way around the pyramid they grow larger and smaller with a wave motion effect. Although they differ in size their style is always the same.

Two larger coiled snakes not in the rank-and-file, but off the north and south sides of the pyramid, lie guard with heads erect and topped with curious headdresses. Near these two captives of the guard stand altar-like structures.

Another interesting feature of the site is a tomb-like platform at the foot of the southeast corner of the pyramid. It is ornamented with carved stone skulls and crossed blades, and an inner empty "casket" is lined with gayly-colored funeral crosses.

The only part of the pyramid now to be excavate is the southwest corner, and the diggers will not be surprised if in the next few weeks they come upon another such tomb-like structure in the symmetrical position on the other side.

The numerous significant details of this unusual Aztec site will be reported at the Congress of Americanists, which meets in New York city in September 17 of this year. Jose Reggadass Vertiz, who will represent the Mexican direction of archeology, and who has directed the excavation at Tenayuca, will present the report.

Hobby Costing 35 Cents
Earns $5,000 in 7 Years

Kansas City, Mo.—A 35-cent investment coupled to a radio hobby has grown to a $5,000 vacation fund for H. K. Wattson.

In 1921, when broadcasting was in its infancy, Wattson made a spider-web receiving set, using a cigar box lid, two pieces of cardboard, 50 feet of enameled wire, a few screws and nuts and a crystal. The cardboard and cigar box cover were salvaged from a waste basket, while the wire and crystal were purchased for 15 cents each and the screws and nuts cost a nickel.

A friend admired the tiny set and purchased it for $3. Wattson, who is sales manager for a smelting company, thought it would be fun to see how high he could pyramid the profits. He spent the $3 for material to make ten other sets, improving his product by increasing the cost of each unit from 25 to 50 cents.

He continued to put the proceeds of sales back into raw materials, making better sets with each turnover of capital until he was selling them for $50. When the 35 cents mounted to $5,000 Wattson decided he had had enough fun and set the money aside for financing the annual vacations of his family.

Wattson formerly was a member of the music faculty at Bethany college, Lindsborg, Kan.

Indian Whipping Post
Remains in Oklahoma

Durant, Okla.—A reminder of the days when an Indian tribe independently enforced its own self-made laws with the lash of the whip remains today in southeastern Oklahoma, where an ancient oak whipping tree stands near the old courthouse of the Chickasaw nation.

The Chickasaws, of whom few pure bloods remain today, had few laws, but they were rigidly enforced. For the first offense, the violator was tied to the whipping tree and given 39 lashes.

For the second offense he received 60 lashes, and for the third he was hanged. Any member of the tribe who was whipped automatically lost his franchise in the nation, and it could not be restored except by act of the legislature.

The courthouse was built shortly after the Civil war.

Court was held the first Monday of each month. Along foot paths, across wooded hills, and through valleys, the Chickasaws came each month for the opening of court. They pitched camp near the courthouse and remained until the business was completed.

The Chickasaws were one of the strongest tribes that settled in Indian territory.

Stockholm Had Mail
Service 650 Years Ago

Stockholm.—A regular post office was established in Stockholm more than 650 years ago, according to the researches just published by the noted Swedish historian, Dr. L. M. Banth.

Doctor Banth, who has carried out extensive research work in the library of the Vatican concerning the medieval history of Sweden and its connections with the pope and the Vatican, discovered a papal bull, dated 1262, giving the papal blessing to a new post office in Stockholm organized by the great Swedish statesman, Earl Birger.

It also appears from the bull that mails were regularly carried between the Swedish capital and Rome with delivery of letters at intermediate places in Europe, mostly by traveling monks. The pope refers to this transport of mail in the poetical words: "On the wings of love."

Buenos Aires.—No circus stunt can beat this. A pilot looping the loop was thrown from a plane and parachuted to safety. His observer was left behind. The plane fell crazily, and the observer righted it just in time to land nicely.

Best for Pulpmood

Pulpmood for making paper can be grown in from 20 to 30 years or more, says the American Tree association of Washington. Some very profitable plantations of Norway spruce, white spruce, and red spruce have been grown for pulpmood in this length of time. Spruce makes the best kind of wood for paper pulp.

Tailor Returns $1,400

to Forgetful Customer

Atlantic City, N. J.—Lee Seid of Kansas City sent his suit to a tailor here to be pressed, forgetting there, was $100 in one of the pockets. Joseph T. Frost, the tailor, looking through the suit for mistakes found an envelope containing that sum in $50 and $100 bills and returned it to his customer.

His anxious friends sought out Seid to tell him how he could have made such an error. "I just put the money in my pocket and forgot it," he replied, and gave Frost $50.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Sept. 14 (AP).—Speculation for the advance was resumed on a broad scale in today's stock market, which witnessed the establishment of nearly two-score new high records. Buying embraced a wide list of issues, but the motors, motor accessories, oils, foods and copper were the best demonstration of group strength. Extreme gains in the active issues ranged from 2 to 12 points, with the ticker falling half an hour or more behind the market.

Despite bankers' predictions of continued high money rates this fall, operators for the advance went confidently ahead with their campaign in the belief that the resumption of gold shipments from Great Britain would ease the credit situation. Call money renewed at 7 percent, as against 7½ yesterday. Loans in the "outside market" were reported at 6½ and 6¾ percent. Gold and motor products were the spectacular individual features, each spurring 12 points to new high records at 217 and 158, respectively. Adams Express climbed 11½ points, Collins & Aikman 7½, Curtiss Aeroplane & Motor 5½ and Wright Aeronautical 5.

U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Republic Steel, Case Threshing Machine, Radio, Greene Cananea Copper, Pressed Steel Car preferred, Freeport Texas and Wilson Co. A sold 4 to 5 points higher.
Among the many new high records were Harndall A. Texas Corporation, National Enameling, Cerro De Pasco Copper and Hupp Motors.
Trading was again in large volume, with blocks of 5,000 to 15,000 shares appearing on the tape at frequent intervals. Bear traders, who had sold stocks freely in expectation of a sharp reaction on the publication of the brokers' loan increase, were driven to cover in several of the high-priced specialties. Public participation was on a broad scale, with commission houses reporting unusually heavy orders from middle western cities.

Where the Lace Comes From

In the good old days when Robin Hood and Richard the Lion-Hearted were active, Nottingham, England, was a great market town near the boundaries of Sherwood forest. To day its more than a quarter-million people spend most of their time making machine lace and hosiery. Yet notwithstanding the miles of lace and machine-made lace curtains, the city preserves a remarkable air of romance. It has sent many distinguished sons into the world since the days of the famous sheriff of Nottingham. One of these is General Booth, founder of the Salvation army.

Hats Going Out of Style

Nearly a third of the men seen on the streets in New York city's main business section wear no hats and "fads" is growing. The "Hatless Manhattan" movement is partly responsible. The head of this crusade, one Abraham Vogel, speaks every night in Union Square, promising converts freedom from baldness, better health all around and savings of from 50 cents to $2 a week in hat costs including tips to hat-checking pirates. The hat stores would like to poison Vogel.

Duel Fought with Cards

Cards and coin have succeeded the crack of the pistol in settling "affairs of honor" in Czechoslovakia. An engineer at Brezna is said to have given offense to a business man, who challenged him to a duel. "Why not settle the affair at cards?" another man suggested. The "duellists" agreed, and sat down at the card table to play for a stake of $7,500. The business man won.

Use of Trouble

What are the trials to the child of God but the hurdles over which he leaps to find himself a better man for the exertion? What are sorrows but the heart singing in minor key the glory to come, whose rich major tones already are sounding far beneath? What are annoyances but the strings of insects to make more energetic his motions towards perfect mastery?—Floyd W. Tomkins.

In order to be a success the prize-fighter must always consider the rights of others.

HURRICANE REPORTED TRAVELING NORTHEASTWARD.

New York, Sept. 14 (AP).—Local officials of the French Cable Company at 11:30 a. m. today received a message from Cape Haitien, Haiti, saying that the hurricane was expected to strike that point in an hour and a half. The storm was reported as traveling northeastward.

The news was interpreted here as indicating that the disturbance was bound to sweep the Bahama Islands and cross the lanes usually used by Cuban mail steamers.

In that path are many vessels, including the Pacific liner Orizaba, on which Sir Austen Chamberlain, British foreign minister, is voyaging toward Havana, Panama and California.

Officer Slain, Killer Captured

Paul Jaworski Shot and Captured in Battle in Which An Officer Was Slain and Another Probably Fatally Wounded.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 14 (AP).—Paul Jaworski, 27 year old killer who was shot and captured in a gun battle with police here yesterday, in which an officer was slain and another probably fatally wounded, today admitted participation in the $10,000 robbery of the Detroit News payroll a few months ago. Detective Sergeant Emil Ziegler announced. One policeman was killed and another was wounded during the holdup.

Jaworski, however, denied to newspapermen that he had done any "jobs" since he shot his way out of the Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, jail a year ago. He was awaiting sentence for murder.

The gunman also told Detective Lieutenant Frank Story that he was preparing to return to Pittsburgh to "shoot his brother out of jail with a machine gun," when he was captured. The detective said Jaworski told him that his brother, Sam Jaworski, was being held in Pittsburgh jail on a charge of aiding him in his sensational jail break.

Jaworski has six murders and numerous robberies on his record.

DR. RICHMOND, PRESIDENT OF UNION COLLEGE, WILL RETIRE

Schenectady, N. Y., Sept. 14 (AP).—Dr. Charles Alexander Richmond, president of Union College and chancellor of Union University, is to retire, he has indicated. The chancellor, questioned last night concerning his retirement from his college duties, declined to do more than confirm the report, current for several months, that he would retire. He said that the date of his resignation has not been decided.

Dr. Richmond, 65 years old, came to Union College as president 19 years ago, after resigning the pastorate of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church of Albany, where he had served for 15 years.

Born in New York city, he was a student for a year at the college of the City of New York and later obtained a bachelor of arts degree at Princeton University. Three years after the award of this degree, he was given the degree of master of arts and, as bachelor of divinity, was graduated from the Princeton Theological Seminary.

While president of Union College, honorary degrees were conferred on Dr. Richmond by Princeton, New York University, St. Andrews (Scotland), Hamilton College and the University of Pittsburgh. He had, in a trip around the world, lectured at numerous universities and at another time lectured at the Sorbonne University of Paris.

Through the efforts of Dr. Richmond the endowment fund of Union College has been increased from $500,000 to $1,500,000.

Us Girls

"Why, what do you want to take an eight-months-old baby to a motion picture for?" inquired her mother.

"Well," said Bessie defensively, "I've got to take him sometime, 'I'd rather take him now before he gets big and expensive."

Heavy Storm Toll In New England

Sept. 14 (AP).—A series of heavy wind and lightning storms swept four New England states yesterday, causing at least one life and in their wake a heavy toll of property damage.

Rhode Island and New Hampshire came reports of unroofed houses, uprooted trees, felled chimneys and temporary paralysis of communications.

N. H., 22 miles east of Lowell, was probably the hardest hit place. Wind of tornado velocity swept an area four miles in length and a mile wide, causing general damage and unroofing many houses. Buildings, the town basket shop, and a moment after two women had been working there fled to the street. Property damage was estimated at $50,000.

Lowell and other places in northern Massachusetts experienced a sharp electrical storm which was accompanied by heavy rainfall with gusts frequent.

The only known fatality occurred at Hartford, Conn., where James Brown, 63, a native of Tyngsboro, Mass., and a golf course engineer, was killed when struck by lightning in Goodwin Park. William Watson of Hartford, a brother-in-law of Brown, who had taken refuge with him under a tree, was in a critical condition from his injuries.

The storm in Rhode Island was of near cloudburst proportions. The accompanying wind fell enough lighting poles to plunge wide sections on both sides of Narragansett Bay into darkness.

Although Providence escaped the rain, observers there reported the chain lightning one of the most dazzling electrical displays in years.

Sections chiefly affected included Apponaug, Knightsville, Oakland, South Kingston, Scituate, the Paxton Valley, Rumford, Phillipsdale, Barrington and Seekonk in nearby Massachusetts.

In Boston the storm was confined to a heavy but short downpour and a few sharp flashes of lightning. No damage was reported here.

Joseph L. Harris of White Plains, who was arrested there on Wednesday on a warrant sworn out by A. W. Mollott of Wall street, charging Harris with giving Mollott a bad check for $30, was discharged in police court this morning when the charge was withdrawn. He was immediately rearrested by the police at the request of the Westchester county authorities where Harris is wanted on a grand larceny charge. He was held at headquarters here to await the arrival of the Westchester county authorities.

Later in the morning the hearing was adjourned to September 20 on Mrs. Daley's plea of not guilty.

Highland Man On Jail Limits

Failing to pay a judgment of costs amounting to $168.34 secured against him last June when he lost an action for assault brought against Frank Currie, John R. Seaman of Highland was served with a body execution Thursday by Sheriff Rice and brought to the county jail. Under the body execution he would be compelled to serve 90 days in the county jail but he deposited $200 with the court and was confined to the jail limits for the 90 days. He will remain in Kingston for the 90 days.

Seaman sued in Supreme court to recover damages from Frank and John Currie for an alleged assault which took place according to plaintiff at the Seaman roadside stand which adjoins the Currie property. The erection of a spitte fence between the two properties was the cause of the trouble and Seaman claimed that after he had erected a sign on a pole over the spitte fence, the Currie brothers attacked him without any reason. He denied that he had provoked an attack and testified that he had not laughed at the Curries but at the wording he had placed on the sign. The attack followed. He sued and the jury after hearing both sides of the case brought in a verdict of no cause of action. The judgment of costs followed and Seaman failed to pay. Chris Finnegan, appeared for Seaman on the trial and A. W. Lent for the Currie brothers.

FAMILY IDENTIFIED THROUGH FREEMAN INQUIRY

The item in Thursday's Freeman seeking information regarding the Farrelly family which was being sought by The Seaman's Bank for Savings in New York city, recalled the Rev. Felix Farrelly to the memory of a former parishioner who writes The Freeman that Father Farrelly was appointed pastor of St. Mary's Church in May, 1859, and remained here until May, 1859, when he went to New York city as pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Sixth avenue, of which the Rev. John J. Hickey is now pastor. Father Farrelly died in New York city rather Farrelly opened an account in the New York bank in 1861 and the bank had heard nothing from him in over twenty years. Father Farrelly had three sisters, Anna, Mary and Rosalie.

Improving Broadway Property.

The march of improvement along commercial lines on Broadway between Elmwood street and Cornell street is going right along. Guerin Ruzzo, the confectioner at 670 Broadway, who owns the building at 654-656 Broadway, one store being occupied as a Chinese laundry and the other formerly as a restaurant, is having modern plate glass fronts installed with light colored brick columns. ## Nominations for Notaries Public

W.C.T.U. Favors "Dry" Candidates

At the annual convention of the Ulster County Women's Christian Temperance Union, held in the Reformed Church at Saugerties on Thursday, the following resolutions were adopted:

We rejoice in the sweep of prohibition sentiment over the country that compelled both the great political parties to declare in their national platforms for the enforcement of the 18th Amendment. However, we regret exceedingly that one of the candidates had the audacity to practically repudiate his party platform on prohibition.

We feel that the present national political campaign is, possibly, the gravest crisis that has confronted the cause of prohibition in 40 years. We, therefore, urge all our members to talk and work and pray for the election of the man who has had the moral courage to take a bold stand for the Eighteenth Amendment and for its strict enforcement.—Herbert Hoover.

Further, we urge all our members to work and vote only for candidates for president, U. S. senator, congressmen, members of the legislature and local executive officers who are committed to the enforcement of prohibition, which we consider the supreme issue at the present time before the American people. The election of a "wet" president may mean the wrecking of the 18th Amendment and all prohibition enforcement. A supreme effort must be put forth to prevent such a calamity coming to our country. It is also important that a governor be elected committed to prohibition enforcement.

We strongly urge all our local unions to make a personal canvass of the non-voting women of their communities, particularly those in sympathy with prohibition, and strenuously urge them to register and vote this fall.

It is a sad commentary on the slavery of the drink habit and social custom, as well as on the patriotism, of a large number of people socially prominent and blessed with wealth, whose high moral and financial interests do not prompt them to honor and obey the 18th Amendment as loyally as they do other parts of our national constitution.

We heartily commend all efforts of the federal prohibition department in enforcing the 18th Amendment. We affirm it is our conviction that the people who encourage and patronize bootleggers are as responsible as the bootleggers themselves.

S. P. C. A. Takes Lucky from Water

Lucky, German police dog, that was doing a record swim from Albany to New York, was taken from the Hudson at Poughkeepsie Thursday by order of the American Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Officers of New York headquarters saw that the animal was taken from the water. The stunt was declared "inhuman and cruel."

The dog when taken from the river about 7:30 Thursday morning was well ahead of all former records. Lucky's chances to shatter the record of 53 hours and 11 minutes made by Lottie Schoemell, woman swimmer, over the 153 mile course, looked good up until the time of the interference of the S. P. C. A.

Lucky started her swim from Albany on Sunday. The dog spent a total of 1,420 minutes in the water, making 58 nautical miles in the time. From six to eight hours were spent in the river every day, swimming two hours and resting 30 minutes.

John Schweghart of New York city, the dog's owner, denies that the stunt is cruel or inhuman. Harold Godsoe, Lucky's trainer, claims he takes excellent care of the animal.

HELD FOR SULLIVAN COUNTRY CLUB ROBBERY.

New York, Sept. 14 (AP).—Alexander Moses, 19 year old, was in the police lineup today accused of being one of the four robbers who held up the Lock Sheldrake Country Club in Sullivan county August 19.

The victims, police said, were east side gangsters "on vacation." Several thousand dollars in money and jewelry were taken. An alleged dice game was in progress when the four robbers entered.

Moses will be taken to Monticello later today. He was arrested on information obtained from Anthony Rustivo, alias Joe Rivers, 33 years old. Rustivo was arrested Wednesday and police said, had been identified as having participated in four Sullivan county hotel and club holdups.

Morris "Whitey" Stepler, 28, of Brooklyn was fatally wounded in the Lock Sheldrake holdup in an exchange of shots between the club's bartender and the four robbers. Information he gave police led to Rustivo's arrest.

Police said 15 guns, alleged property of some of the guests, were found in the club's locked safe.

Porto Rico in Need of Relief

Further Deaths in Prospect from Disease and Famine Unless Relief Measures Available at Once Declares Eye-Witness.

The Associated Press today received the following dispatch from Thomas E. Benner, chancellor of the University of Porto Rico. It is an eye-witness account of the damage in San Juan and the immediate vicinity by the hurricane which hit the island yesterday and it indicates the need of relief for sufferers from the storm.

The University of Porto Rico. San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 14 (AP).—It is impossible as yet to appraise fully the damage caused by yesterday's hurricane. All communications are paralyzed. The entire island has suffered terribly.

I have personally seen the damage within a seven-mile radius of San Juan. In this area hospitals are unroofed and at least 50 per cent of the families are without shelter. Famine and disease threaten them. The water supply of San Juan and the surrounding towns has been interrupted.

Building material stocks in the island are insufficient to replace five per cent of the roofs that have been destroyed.

Medical supplies, food and shelter are needed at once.

Within the area observed by me all coconut, coffee and banana plantations and groves of minor fruits have been destroyed. The losses will reach many millions in dollars.

Many lives have been lost and further deaths are in prospect from disease and famine, unless relief becomes available at once. Immediate action is vitally important.

The measured wind velocities on the ground reached 85 miles an hour at 11 a. m. This was three hours before the storm developed its greatest intensity. Heavy rains completed the damage that was started by the wind.

Dry Agents Busy in Rockland County

Edward Cleary, who conducts a general store and soft drink place at the four corners at Bardonia, Rockland county, received a visit from the federal agents, from the Kingston office on Thursday. The agents seized a quantity of alleged apple jack, whiskey, alcohol and a large quantity of alleged bottled beer. The beer was destroyed by the agents after samples had been taken. Cleary was arrested by the agents and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Raymond Fisher of Nanuet where he was held in bail for appearance before U. S. Commissioner Crist at Middletown on September 17 on a charge of possession of liquors in violation of the prohibition law.

Robinson Again Attacks Hoover

Declaring He Attempted to Hold Down the Price of American Wheat While Serving As Food Administrator—Moves Into Georgia.

Robinson Special Car Enroute to Savannah, Ga., Sept. 14 (AP).—After giving the first verbal broadside against the Republicanism which South Carolina has heard from a candidate on the Democratic national ticket since the voice of William Jennings Bryan rang out in the state more than a quarter of a century ago, Senator Joe Robinson today moved onward to Georgia for a speech at Savannah tonight.

In Columbia, the near geographical center of the Palmetto state, which for years upon years has been Democratic about its ears, the Democratic vice presidential nominee last night accused Herbert Hoover of having attempted to hold down the price of American wheat while serving as food administrator under Woodrow Wilson, and delivered another attack on what he described as the whispering campaign.

Introduced to an audience which waved American flags, sang "Dixie," and listened to the playing of the "sidewalks of New York," by Reach Stewart, who a few months ago moved to instruct the South Carolina delegates to Houston against Alfred E. Smith, Robinson said:

"No intimation has reached me that the selection which is noted in the columns of the morning is of sufficient importance to South Carolina to require efforts to offset it."

The senator during his stay in Columbia conferred with Governor James B. McRae, an opponent of Smith in the pre-conventional fight, and with the governor and the two South Carolina senators, H. D. Sikes and John B. Sikes, were among the speakers on the platform.

It was noted that there was no difference between the Republican and Democratic platforms on immigration and that the "important distinction" could be found in the utterances on this subject by Smith and Hoover in their campaign speeches.

The senator also said Hoover and his economic state, Senator Curtis of Kansas, were in "disagreement over how to tackle the farm problem. The former proposing another conference, and the latter suggesting the turning the work over to a joint congressional committee."

Tannersville to Sell Bonds. Mayor Samuel D. Sandler of Tannersville has given notice that the village will receive sealed proposals for the purchase of 20 coupon bonds, of the denomination of $1,000 each, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. Bids will be received until 6 p. m. daylight saving time on September 26.

DOKTORS URGE NEW WATER SUPPLY FOR CATSKILL.

Several Catskill physicians, two of them health officers, have urged the discontinuance of the use of the Hudson river water for human consumption. The medicines heartily endorse procuring the Poughkeepsie furnish water for Catskill. Health authorities and engineers are among those in favor of using the pure water supply for Catskill instead of the highly chlorinated water of the Hudson.

New York—The development of light-weight woolen hosiery for fall is in keeping with the interest manifested in wool gowns for utilitarian purposes. There are obviously times when wool hosiery has no standing, but there should be times when silk gives way before it.

A slight darkening of tones is indicated in fall hosiery lines, but complexionists are still the retaining favorites, with grain and atmosphere in demand. Rather naturally dyes of hosiery are paying some attention to fur shades. With navy blue kid shoes in the running for fall, hosiery presents rather a nice problem. One should never hazard a guess in matching colors; better far to make no attempt to match, than a half-hearted one.

Frock Developed in Plaid Trans-

the Skirt. (Sketched for Fairchild.)

Come autumn, and with it invariably an attempt to popularize plaids. Often it amounts to nothing, for plaids are regarded with a prejudiced eye by many. They are attempted again this season, and likely to make a triumphal re-entry via the silk sweater or the sweater, silk or not. Plaid velvet suggests interesting possibilities and is used alone or in combination with the tone reflected in the plaid.

Chanel will be instrumental in establishing plaids through the medium of men's wear silks, silks such as cravattes are made of, which she finds effective for the top section of her cardigan suits. While the separate blouse, as an individual garment is not strikingly important, the blouse as a part of the ensemble costume is of tremendous interest. It may introduce an entirely different color or fabric, metal cloth being among the desirable materials for this purpose.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Good Style for a School Dress.

6208. This model has fairness below a square yoke, that extends over the front in a long tab with pointed end, under which the belt is adjusted. The comfortable short sleeve is finished with a turned-back cuff. Cotton or sheer wool crepe, wool georgette, linen, pongee or cotton prints, all these are suitable for the development of this design. As here pictured green linen was employed with facings on collar, cuffs and belt of a darker shade. White or beige would be equally effective for trimming on green. Bias binding forms a neat finish.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. To make the dress as illustrated in the large view, for a 12 year size, will require 2 1/2 yards of 27 inch material, together with 1/4 yard of contrasting material for facing on collar, cuffs and belt. To finish the dress with bias binding as illustrated will require 2 1/2 yards. A pattern of this illustration

Two Kinds of Fur Make Sports Coat

Combination Helps to Eliminate Set Look; Dyes Have Tempered Texture.

Fur coats now have become something to one's wardrobe that is as skin to a necessity as it once was a luxury. Says a fashion writer in the Kansas City Star. So many new tricks have come into the trade. The lowly rabbit, that once a woman would have scorned to mention in connection with furs, is now proudly mentioned as one of the furs which is much worn. In short, this fur "has been worked," to use the words of the trade, to a near ermine softness and whiteness without the wearing quality of the expensive fur.

Moreover, dyes have been tempered to the texture of furs, and new methods make them more desirable than ever before, blending them to the costume and otherwise bringing a fur into the picture both from the standpoint of practicality and beauty. The use of two kinds of fur, for instance a caracul coat and skunk collar, all have contributed to take away the set look from the fur coat.

Although new lines in fur are seen each season, by the very nature of the material used the general straight line effect is good. However, that has not deterred the designers from bringing all that is best in the new trend of dress to the fur coat.

Furs are of many kinds, and it is well to realize that there are good.

Sports Coat Made of Leopard and Trimmed With Beaver.

bad and very indifferent furs in each group. It is wise to buy the best of its kind, and much better judgment to select a medium-priced fur which is of high grade in its group, than to purchase a cheap, low-grade fur in a higher-priced kind of skin.

It is important to deal with a reliable merchant or furrier whose word can be depended upon, and who is in business and likely to be in business permanently. Such a dealer has his reputation to protect, and naturally wants to hold the confidence and good will of his public.

The best furs are those which are taken at the season of the year when the law permits the hunting or trapping of that animal. The reason for this is that at that time the animals are at their best, the furs sleekest and heaviest, and the pelts strongest. During the out-of-season period the furs are much less desirable and ill-conditioned.

As a rule, the pelt of the buck of the species is richer and finer in color and quality than the pelt of the doe animal. This would indicate that motherhood in the lower animal world, as well as among humans, is inclined to draw rather heavily upon the mother.

Feather Hats Promised for Early Fall Season

Womanhood generally have always had a penchant for the song-bringing little feather hat, well knowing it frames the face with a bewitching becomingness. The prediction for fall is feather hats and more feather hats, always, of course, of the turban genre.

There will be black feathers, black and white combined, colored feathers, flat feathers, ostrich, tiny quills and many of the hackles which cover the entire head with softly modeled hairline. Lacquered feathers, metal effects and the ever-present polka dot are seen on autumn turbans that have presented themselves.

When the hat is not composed of feathers it may at least have a side trim of some sort, whether the hat medium is of felt or velvet. Whatever the application of feathers, as a whole or as a trimmings, they lessen the severity of the small hat.

Probe Jockey's Telephone Bills

Chicago, Sept. 14 (P)—A telephone company's bill to Jockey C. E. Allen for long distance calls, including calls to Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Boston Braves, and John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, today precipitated a "race tipping" investigation by the Illinois Turf Association.

The Tribune said the association, of which Stuyvesant Peabody is president, will seek to determine if there has been any organized broadcasting of information and just what the information was.

A facsimile of the telephone company's letter to Allen brought the names of Hornsby and McGraw into the matter. The letter, addressed to Allen at the Arlington Park racetrack, requested that he make payment of $550.07 "for telephone service furnished your wife, Catherine E. Allen, over telephone Lincoln 5312," in a fashionable north side apartment hotel.

"Practically all of this bill," the letter said, "is for toll calls made to various cities throughout the country during the months of June and July of this year, calling among others Rogers Hornsby and John McGraw."

Allen, asked about it, said he was not married and that he had never lived at the hotel where the calls were made. Clerks at the hotel said a Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen had lived there during July and August, but that there was no resemblance between "C. Allen" and Jockey Allen.

The itemized bill for the toll charges showed that a call was made to Boston July 27, three days after Hornsby's ball club had returned to the home grounds after a swing through the west. Most of the calls for which the "phone company seeks to collect were made in the week July 21-28, the bill for that week alone being $477.90.

A review of races for that week made by the Tribune showed that Allen rode only one winner in that time. In the seventh race July 23, he brought Turquoise home in front at odds of 8 to 1. He rode a dozen losers during the period.

When the "phone company bill was received, Allen turned it over to a friend to take up with the company. "I know nothing about these calls, and that's all there is to it," he was quoted as saying.

Last year Hornsby was sued for $92,000 by a bookmaker who claimed Hornsby owed that sum in connection with race track deals.

K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, was asked if there was any rule of organized baseball forbidding players to wager on horse races.

"We had a discussion of that at a baseball meeting at a ranch last," he said. "I don't care to talk about it. Look it up in your rule books."

K. H. S. Grid Team Shows Good Form

The Kingston High School varsity football team shows good form as the coach puts them through their daily workout. This is very unfavorable weather for football but still the coach puts his men through the daily grind, in order to get them in shape for the game which is not long off, September 22.

There are a number of veterans on the squad this year but the coach has the big problem of finding a pair of ends. This problem will be soon solved for the coach is working with a couple of men now but will not give any information as to their prospects of making the two open positions.

"Phil" McDonald, "All Hudson Valley" tackle for the past two years, is again with his stocky partner, "Herb" Clarke who had the honor of being picked as "All Hudson Valley" guard last year. John Mohr, who was distinguished as "All Hudson Valley" center for the past two years, is again at his position and is showing old-time form. Captain Jones, who was picked by the majority of papers in the Hudson Valley as the best quarterback, is again calling the signals this year.

The other men on the squad from last year's eleven are Thompson, Watts, Brigham, Merrill, Lynch, Fisher and Minasian.

Jewish New Year Begins at Sunset

Sunset today will mark the beginning of Jewish New Year when a leaf will be torn from the Hebrew calendar revealing the year 5689. The season is ushered in with the celebration of Rosh Hashanah, or New Year's day. Ten days later, September 23, is the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur.
